PARK SPRINGS OF EDEN

HOUSE OF DAVID Benton Harbor, Mich.

The House of David is situated in the heart of the fruit belt.

The beautiful flowers and flowing waters are the admiration of all visitors.

Nothing equals the health restoring waters from the Springs of Eden, located in a picturesque valley of natural scenery with mountain appearance.

Thousands have visited the House of David heretofore and since the opening of the Park to the public there has been a great rush of excursionists on all railroad and steamship lines.

Improvements and attractions are being added as fast as possible.

The Little Train runs over the high bridge, crossing the valley to the Jewish Ravenna Park, thence to Bethany, south of Park Springs of Eden.

You may notice signs before reaching the House of David, saying "Remain on to the end of the line," which is at the House of David, except the loop, as explained on front page.

Get Off At The House Of David And Avoid Mistakes

We hand out literature answering the many questions of those who desire to know the principles of the faith of the Israelite House of David. Also souvenirs, post cards and photos of the beautiful grounds and buildings, admired by all.

Information for Excursionists!, ca. 1910. M-007.
